Dear Travelers,

It is fall—how does that happen? We know you're going to enjoy this Kiosk because it's full of your favorites--Oktoberfest, Almbtriebfest, Volksfest, one last chance at Rhein Aflame, and one last pottery shopping trip...Add in there an international flea market, two holiday weekend special USO trips and Burg Frankenstein and there you have it—we hope you enjoy!

Sometimes it's hard for me to believe I've already been serving as your USO Stuttgart Tours Manager for nearly two and one-half years but it's true! Finally, September will see me return to my hometown and begin a fresh chapter in the second half of my life—that “retired” chapter. It is with great excitement that I am going—to a new “old” house, close to my family and with lots of time to...knit?? It is also with only a little sadness that I go because my time in this position--meeting you, serving you, sharing with you--has been a great joy to me and leaves me with so many fond memories that I just cannot be sad! I consider these memories to be some of the best times of my life, truly—and I thank you for that. It has been my great pleasure!

I would be remiss not to thank those VIP(eople) who've allowed me to have so much fun for so long—the USO, an organization I am proud to be a part of; my husband; my friends; and my co-workers, who have become my family! Thank you! ...well, there went a tear or two...I'll miss all of you!

Don't stop traveling and when you pass through Missouri, look me up—I'll show you around!

Fare thee well, travelers!

01 September, Saturday---Heidelberg Castle Illumination

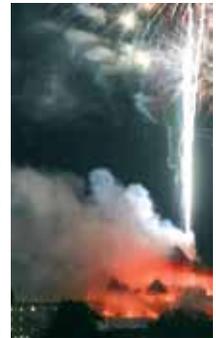

Heidelberg Castle overlooks the lovely university town with its cathedral and multiple historic buildings. Down the medieval alleys one finds quaint boutique shops, unique from the main street. A town steeped in history, the element of fire features strongly in Heidelberg's varied history. To commemorate the destruction of the castle by the French, Heidelberg celebrates castle illuminations three times every summer. Every Castle illumination is further complemented by a festive concert at 6:15 PM in the Heiliggeistkirche (Church of the Holy Spirit) on Market Square. We'll arrive in the city in the afternoon for a guided tour with our favorite 'Heidelbergerin', Suzanne, who will charm you with her wit, knowledge and lovely mixed accent! Following your tour we've allowed plenty of time for you to ramble around the Old Town. The city will be full of folks looking for dinner at the same time, so visit: www.heidelberg-marketing.de for a list of restaurants and make a reservation! Tour includes transportation, guided city tour and USO escort.

It's time again for the traditional wine market in Oberwesel. The program promises entertainment for visitors and guests. With the selection of over 150 different stalls, taste and enjoy the best wines that the region has to offer! A very special highlight this year promises to be "Rhine in flames - night of the thousand fires". A new digital ignition process has allowed synchronized music with fire effects down to the second. The result is a Pyro-musical! This brilliant firework is the icing on the cake and guarantees to leave you charmed! The ship parade with about 50 participating ships completes this picture and offers visitors a very special experience. Enjoy a beautiful feast with top-class regional wines, culinary delights, entertainment and fireworks! Tour price includes transportation, 3-course dinner cruise (beverages not included), admission to Weinmarkt and USO Escort. NO EARLY BIRD DISCOUNT. OVER 18 YEARS, ONLY!

Trier is the center of German antiquity with its UNESCO World Heritage Sites, its rich array of historic monuments and its many important archaeological excavations and discoveries—definitely an impressive testimony to the city's past as a Roman imperial residence! History will come alive with a toga tour guide for a 2-hour tour. Then, if you choose, keep it alive as you visit seven of these sites--Porta Nigra - Zurlaubener shore - Barbara Baths - Amphitheater - Konstantine Basilika - Karl-Marx-Haus - Petrisberg with a Hop-On/Hop-Off bus tour (optional-see prices below). Ride the loop while listening to your English-language audio-guide, then return to your favorite spots and do a little deep exploring of your own! 09 September, Sunday—596th Dürkheimer Wurstmarkt

It's one of the largest, most traditional and entertaining public festivals in Germany. It is over 596 years old, and still as young as ever - the Dürkheim festival of festivals - the main event of the year in the Pfalz. The entertainment along with the wine is one of the distinctive features of the festival. You can enjoy over 150 different wines in over 50 different places - from the mellow Riesling to the finest ice-wine. Whether in the large wine halls or at the traditional "Schubkärchler" - small traditional wine stands with scrubbed wooden tables worn smooth over the years - the Dürkheim wine loses none of its flavor wherever you drink it. Although the Dürkheim wine is the center of attraction, the Wurstmarkt would be unthinkable without its travelling fairground - fun for the whole family. The village is a lovely spa village with gorgeous walking paths into the low hills in case you prefer less time in the fest. Make a Sunday of it! Tour price includes transportation and USO Escort—fest entrance is FREE! Bring money for food and fun!

06 October, Saturday—Mayrhofen Almbtriebffest

It's that time of the year when the seasons are changing and the farmers get things in order. For the big brown cows with the painted bells, it means the safe return from the mountain meadow to the low pasture. The cattle are beautifully decorated with flowers and cowbells of different sizes and the local bands guarantee plenty of entertainment and a splendid atmosphere! We're meeting a guide who will introduce us to some of the cows and show us around Mayrhofen. Following the parade, we're staying with the locals to enjoy some good old Zillertaler fun! This may have been the trip of the season last year---don't sit on the fence (no pun intended) on this one, or you'll miss out! Tour includes transportation, guide, entrance and USO Escort. Tourist passports required.

11-12 October, Thursday-Friday—Genealogy Seminar & Archive visit

11 October, Thursday---Karin Jauch is back to share her expertise in Genealogic research techniques in Germany. Research shows that some 20% of Americans can claim some kind of German heritage. With the dawn of the Internet, many have been able to get a jump on tracing their family trees; what if a German genealogical expert, who spoke perfect English, gave you the knowledge you needed to research your ancestors in the Motherland? That is the intent of this class. Many of us do not know what genealogical research tools are available to us overseas, so join us and find out! Thursday evening you'll get all the tips and background, then... 12 October, Friday--Go with Karin to the main church archive of the Protestant Church for Württemberg. Enjoy an introduction regarding how it is organized, its tasks, structure and responsibilities. See the back room; some examples of old church books and how to work with them. Remember, if you email your specific questions to tour.stuttgart@uso.org 5 days before the class, Karin will have a response packet prepared for you! NO EARLY BIRD. Saturday venue accessible by public transport (not included).

13 October, Saturday---Turin, Italy Express

Turin, as the former capital of the Kingdom of Sardinia, is home of the Savoy Residences. In addition to the 17th-century Royal Palace, built for Madama Reale Christine Marie of France (the official residence of the Savoy until 1865) there are many palaces, residences and castles in the city centre and in the surrounding towns. The complex of the Residences of the Royal House of Savoy in Turin was declared a World Heritage Site by UNESCO in 1997. In recent years, Turin has become an increasingly popular tourist destination, ranking 203rd in the world and 10th in Italy in 2008—it's about 4th on USO Stuttgart's list! We'll discover Turin--2,000 year old city of the "thousand faces," with its many cafes and cultural institutions, by a guided 3-hour city tour, then time on your own to test the culinary delights of the region and maybe a glass of wine at lunchtime, then a museum in the afternoon. Turin has over 45 museums to offer as entertainment. This is an "express" tour, so plan for free time!

Visit www.comune.torino.it/canaleturismo/en/ Tourist passport required. Tour includes transportation, guided city tour and USO escort.

Our expert guide will show you where German Emperors were crowned, where saints are buried, where the most famous and talented German artisans in history created inspirational, awe-inspiring works, and where colorful markets have taken place for 700 years. Following a break for lunch, you may venture out to the Dokumentation Center or find one of the museums near the Old Town to while away your afternoon.
